The Robert W. Barlow Memorial Library maintains social media sites to facilitate sharing of news and information about Library services, programs, and resources to the widest possible audience. The Library looks to create welcoming online spaces where library users may interact amongst themselves and with Library staff, avail themselves of certain Library services, and exchange thoughts and opinions about library-related subjects and issues in a public forum. Social media may also be used to notify users about library employment opportunities.

The Robert W. Barlow Memorial Library's participation in online social networks does not constitute endorsement of the content or view expressed by the participants, including staff. The Library is not liable or responsible for content posted by any participant or for any event or interaction that takes place through any online social network. The Library does not act in place of or in the absence of a parent and is not responsible for enforcing any restrictions which a parent or guardian may place on a minor's use of these services.

By posting on the Library's site(s), users give the Library permission to use their name, profile, photo, and content of the post without compensation.

Terms of Use Guidelines:
